Article 3. Legal Representative of the Company

~~The Company's legal representative is an individual who represents the enterprise to exercise the rights and obligations arising from the enterprise's transactions, representing the enterprise as a plaintiff, defendant, or people with related right and obligation before Arbitrators, courts and other rights and obligations according to the provisions of law.~~

The company has one (01) legal representative: Chairman of the Board of Directors. The rights and obligations of the legal representative are implemented in accordance with the provisions of the Enterprise Law, this Charter and the Management Regulations issued by the Board of Directors in accordance with the provisions of this Charter.

Article 3. Legal Representative of the Company

1. The company has 02 (two) legal representatives, including: Chairman of the Board of Directors and General Director.

2. The legal representative who is the Chairman of the Board of Directors has the following rights and obligations:

a. Signing contracts and transactions of the Company on behalf and in the name of the Company, including:

- Loan contracts, guarantees and other forms of credit (including security measures) with banks;

- Contracts and transactions that according to the Company Charter and Enterprise Law need to be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Board of Directors.

Approval must be done before signing. In this case, the legal representative can only sign those contracts and transactions after there has been a resolution or decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Board of Directors.

b. Sign transaction documents with government agencies/shareholders related to securities.

c. Implement the Company's information disclosure according to securities laws.

In case the General Meeting of Shareholders approves the Company with 02 legal representatives, the Company's Charter specifically stipulates the rights and obligations of each legal representative based on Article 12 of the Law on Enterprise 2020.
